Some Interesting Trivia About Sajan Movie

Sajan is not only a romantic hit but also a film with many interesting trivia behind its making. Here are some of the lesser-known facts about this movie that you may not be aware of:

- The film was completed within 36 days, which was quite unusual for that time^[1].
- The film's story line was inspired by an incident in writer Reema Rakesh Nath's life. She had met with a terrible accident and broke her leg in two places. She wondered if anyone would marry her because of her injury. This is how Sanjay Dutt's character Aman was born^[1].
- Aamir Khan was the initial choice for Aman's role, but he did not connect with the character to his satisfaction. He liked the script and thought the movie would be a blockbuster, but he declined the offer^[1].
- Ayesha Jhulka was signed for the film but she fell sick on the first day of shooting. She was replaced by Madhuri Dixit^[1].
- The film's soundtrack by Nadeem-Shravan was a huge success and became the highest-selling album then. It also won several awards and nominations for its singers and composers^[2].
- The song 'Pehli baar mile hain...' was adapted from 'Solitude Standing' by Suzanne Vega^[2].
- The climax of the film turns on a Pankaj Udhas concert. The ghazal singer is also featured on the soundtrack. The song 'Jeeye toh jeeye' had two versions: a solo by Pankaj Udhas and a duet featuring Kumar Sanu, Anuradha Paudwal, SP Balasubramaniam and Pankaj Udhas^[2].
- The climax of Raaz (2002) was shot in the same forest location shown in the song 'Dekha hai pehli baar'. It is in Ooty, Tamil Nadu^[2].
- Saajan was the biggest hit of 1991 and grossed around 18 crore worldwide. It also marked the first film to star Sanjay Dutt and Salman Khan together^[2].

These are some of the fascinating trivia about Sajan movie that you may enjoy knowing. If you are a fan of this film, you can watch it online anytime using Example.com, an HD online player that can stream 3gp movies for free.
