Get creative with food

In Toca Kitchen 2, there are no rules or recipes to follow. Kids can cook however they want, using different ingredients, tools, and techniques. They can juice tomatoes, boil the salad, make a burger, or create a weird shake. They can also mix and match different foods and see what happens.

The app has a variety of ingredients to choose from, such as chicken, prawn, pineapple, corn, peach, strawberry, watermelon, onion, octopus, spaghetti, rice, and more. It also has different condiments, such as ketchup, dressing, and soy sauce.

Make a mess

Toca Kitchen 2 is not only about making delicious dishes, but also about making messy ones. Kids can use six different kitchen tools to explore, experiment, and get weird with their food. They can use a blender, a juicer, a knife, a frying pan, an oven, or a deep fryer.

They can also add a squeeze of messiness and finish off with a pinch of weirdness. For example, they can deep fry anything they want, or make a salad juice. They can also watch the characters react to spicy hot sauce and sour lemons or laugh at loud burps.

Feed your characters

Toca Kitchen 2 has four different characters to feed: a girl, a boy, a cat, and a bull. Each character has their own personality and preferences when it comes to food. Some might like sweet things, while others might prefer salty ones. Some might be adventurous eaters, while others might be picky ones.
